Attention All Students: The California Math Contest #2 will be on Tuesday, Nov. 14, B Day. For all students who have math on A days, you can take the contest in the first half of lunch in room 115, 118 and 216. NEWS: You will earn PURPOSE POINTS for your house. Please see Mrs. Datoc in room 119 for more information.

AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL

Join Amnesty International's Write for Rights Campaign and earn Support Hours!

See Mr. Ahlback in Room 217 after school on any day to take part in this vital program. By handwriting letters — and you can do this at home — you can help achieve the release of prisoners of conscience around the world. The ten cases Amnesty is focusing on this year are explained on the Amnesty Club's bulletin board down from the Art Room. You will receive one-half Support Hour credit for each letter you write — and maybe help save a life.

CAMPUS MINISTRY

This November, the Core Service Team will be hosting our annual Food Drive to assist St. Theresa's parish and our neighbors. The drive runs through, Friday November 17th. There will be a competition amongst the religion teachers. All students who have the same religion teacher will be competing against the students of other religion teachers. Boxes will be in your religion teacher's classroom labeled for collection. Please bring in canned food and non perishables to support our school's mission and our city's people.

Student Volunteer Opportunity (5 Support hours)

Help Community Clean Team at John O'Connell High School on Saturday Nov. 18 from 8:30am - 1pm. Help the community organize compost and get rid of junk. Volunteers are provided lunch and are acknowledged by SF District 9. See Campus Ministry or email volunteer@sfdpw.org to sign up.

Are you a Senior? Do you live in Pacifica? Come by Campus Ministry for information about a Community Service Scholarship opportunity. Early applications are recommended, see Mr. M in Campus Ministry.
