CLUB NEWS

Latinos Unidos will meet in lunch in room #205

Amnesty International's Write for Rights Campaign
The ARHS Amnesty International / Social Justice Club is taking part in Amnesty's 2018 Write for Rights Campaign: On our bulletin board on the first floor are the photos and case histories of 11 women who are in prison for standing up for human rights, have been threatened with violence for their work, or, in one case, has been murdered for her work but whose family and followers have yet to receive justice. If you can write a letter in support of these women, you will receive ONE-HALF Support Hour for each one you write. See Mr. Ahlback for all the information you need.

Art and Music Lovers of Riordan: The Award Winning Riordan Jazz Band and Art Department will be hosting our Fall Jazz Coffee House and Art Show this evening at 6 PM in Chaminade Hall. Refreshments will be served. Admission is FREE.

DRAMA NEWS

Drama Club Officers please meet Ms. O in the Drama Room at lunch TODAY.

Tomorrow the theatre is off limits all day, for the middle school matinee of The 39 Steps.

Friday at lunch is the Lenaea meeting, at which we will listen and critique all songs. Please meet Ms. O in the theatre.

The 39 Steps: Tickets are ON SALE at the Prep Shop and our online box office riordanhs.seatyourself.biz. As always, tickets are only $5 for students/seniors and $8 for adults. House points will be awarded at EVERY performance!

COLLEGE COUNSELING NEWS

It's November and CSU and UC applications are due on the 30th. Please come to the College Room for drop-in hours during lunch and after school to get help finishing up or reviewing your applications before your submit. I highly recommend that you submit your applications before Thanksgiving Break!
